

FACE TO FACE SCREENING

DIRECTOR OF
YOUTH PROGRAMS
Name Name

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF YOUTH PROGRAMS
Name Name

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY YOUTH PROGRAMS
Name Name-Name

INSTRUCTORS
Name Name-Name
Name Name
Name Name
Name-Name Name

ASSISTANTS
Name Name
Name Name
Name Name Name
Name
Name Name
Name Name

INTERNS
Name Name
Name-Name
Tiana Lui

FACE TO FACE SCREENING

DIRECTOR OF
YOUTH PROGRAMS
Name Name

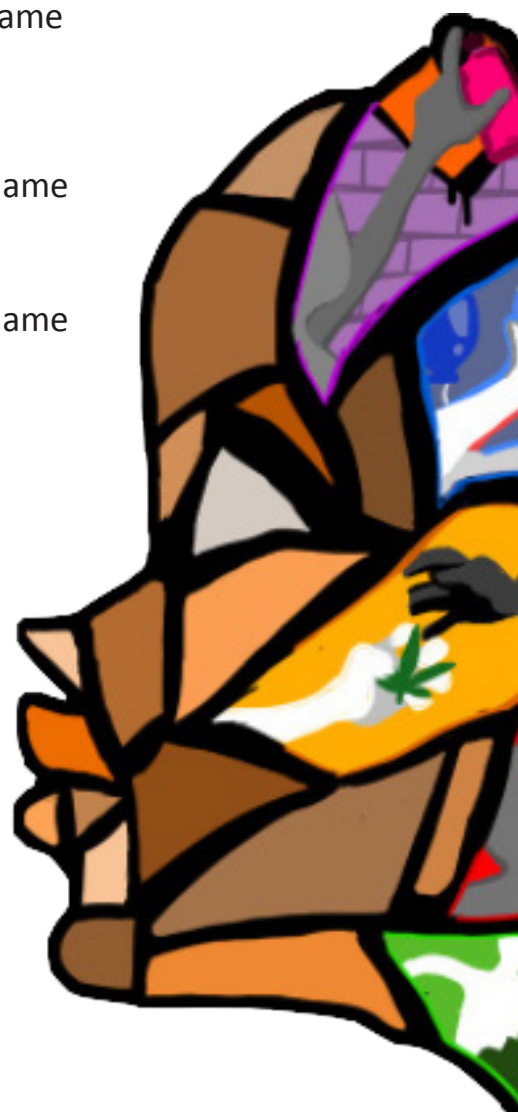

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF YOUTH PROGRAMS
Name Name

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY YOUTH PROGRAMS
Name Name-Name

INSTRUCTORS
Name Name-Name
Name Name
Name Name
Name-Name Name

ASSISTANTS
Name Name
Name Name
Name Name
Name
Name Name
Name Name

INTERNS
Name Name
Name-Name
Tiana Lui

PRO-TV SUMMER MEDIA
FELLOWSHIP

PRO-TV SUMMER MEDIA
FELLOWSHIP

2019 STUDENT FILMS

Using the camera as a compass, DCTV's Youth Filmmakers navigate through stories of teens and young adults who come face to face with their greatest challenges.

MAKING HER MARK

Female activists defy the odds as they challenge community and societal issues through street art in a male dominated space.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

BYSTANDER

When tensions escalate on a subway train, passengers have to decide whether to take action or stand behind the front lines.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

CAMERA FROM MY CULTURE

Youth producer travels abroad and discusses the importance of world-wide connections with individuals of different cultures.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

BLUE FISH

Unbeknownst to Nick, a young Latin man, traumatic events in his past catch up and begin to plague his day until he acknowledges his deepest fears.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

BEFORE IT'S GONE

Before it's Gone discusses gentrification, transitioning from the fictional lens of a Harlem man, to similar stories of real New Yorkers.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

OCEAN'S VIEW

After his prison release for marijuana charges, Ocean struggles to come to terms with a society that now idolizes marijuana.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

2019 STUDENT FILMS

Using the camera as a compass, DCTV's Youth Filmmakers navigate through stories of teens and young adults who come face to face with their greatest challenges.

MAKING HER MARK

Female activists defy the odds as they challenge community and societal issues through street art in a male dominated space.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

BYSTANDER

When tensions escalate on a subway train, passengers have to decide whether to take action or stand behind the front lines.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

CAMERA FROM MY CULTURE

Youth producer travels abroad and discusses the importance of world-wide connections with individuals of different cultures.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

BLUE FISH

Unbeknownst to Nick, a young Latin man, traumatic events in his past catch up and begin to plague his day until he acknowledges his deepest fears.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

BEFORE IT'S GONE

Before it's Gone discusses gentrification, transitioning from the fictional lens of a Harlem man, to similar stories of real New Yorkers.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name

OCEAN'S VIEW

After his prison release for marijuana charges, Ocean struggles to come to terms with a society that now idolizes marijuana.

By Name Name, Name Name, Name Name